

STUDY GUIDE WEEK 4

KEY VERSE OF WEEK 4

"Therefore I urge you to imitate me."
1 Corinthians 4:16

CONTEXT

Paul wants the Corinthians to develop a gospel centered worldview when it comes to evaluating themselves and others. They have become spiritually prideful as they compare themselves to others. Thankfully, none of that happens in our churches. *heavy sarcasm. :)

Paul gives the Corinthians a filter to place over themselves and it's not one that they would want. He uses the imagery of a servant and to communicate that we are to be humble like a servant, not prideful like a king. We have nothing to boast or be cocky in besides Christ.

So what happens when you shift your world view from the being on the throne, to serving The One who sits on it? Our focus shifts from me centered to Christ centered. And that same filter then applies to our brothers and sisters in Christ. All of a sudden, we aren't in competition...we are all serving in the same Kingdom with the same mission. And guess what happens to the comparison game...no one has the right to compare each other. The only one who gets to evaluate us is The Lord.

"1 Corinthians 4:4 The One who evaluates me is the Lord." Understanding THAT is a game changer Sis! It just relieved you of the duty of judging others, including yourself. And then look at what happens in verse 16. When we aren't comparing each other because we are trying to compete for our own kingdoms, then we begin to work together on the same team to expand Christ's Kingdom. Paul then invites others to imitate him. Now he is not saying this to be cocky, he is saying, "imitate me as I imitate Christ". He is helping the Corinthians have the right gaze. The Corinthians were consumed with themselves and had become self-centered. Paul is saying, you're looking at the wrong things. Look at me as I look to Jesus. Fix your eyes on those who can show you how to walk the walk.

My question to you is, how are you walking the walk? Are focused on yourself or are you helping those who are walking behind you to know what it looks like to walk like Jesus?

Praying for you Sis!

IN YOUR OWN WORDS

Write out what is happening in the verses you read. Put it in your own words.

APPLY

Reflect on what you just read, and walk through these questions with Jesus.

Is there a sin I need to confess to Him and ask Him to forgive me?

Is there a truth that I need to believe today?

Is there a promise that I need to hear and hold on to today?

Is there something I need to ask The Lord to help me live differently because of what I just read?

QUESTIONS

What questions came up when you read the verses today? Were there words or customs that you didn't understand? Write those out. Those are important to not just pass over. Those are some of the ways He calls your attention to something you need to pay attention to in your own life.

PRAY/JOURNAL

Take some time to pray/journal after your time of reading. Ask God to change your heart so that you look more and more like Him and less and less like the world. Ask Him to break your heart for what breaks His heart. Ask Him to help you focus on Him and less on what is all around you.
