

STUDY GUIDE WEEK 13

KEY VERSE OF WEEK 13

"Now these three remain: faith, hope and love--but the greatest of these is love." 1 Corinthians 13:13

CONTEXT

As we move into Chapter 13, Paul begins to move from discussing unity, to bringing their attention to "love". The Corinthians were using their spiritual gifts without understanding that the motivation to use them should come from love. And for our time together, I will add the word Godly love so that we don't misconstrue that word with the kind of love that gets put on display in rom-coms.

Paul has to explain to The Corinthians too what kind of love he is talking about.

Verse 4-8 Paul lists out how True love is characterized.

Love is patient, slow to anger, kind and gentle to all, unselfish, giving, truthful, honest, hopeful, encouraging, enduring, and will not end.

Paul wanted the Corinthians to know that without love as the motivator for using their spiritual gifts, their gifts were worthless. When all else fails, love never fails. Why? Because GOD IS LOVE. And Christ is IN us as Christ followers, to help us love in His strength...not ours. We can't love like the love Paul lists out in verse 4-8 without Christ at work within us. So if the Corinthians were to use their gifts in their own strength, they were doing it void of Christ's strength and in so doing...they were not loving.

At the end of the Chapter 13, Paul draws an analogy talking about mirrors. Large bronze mirrors were a common decor around Corinth, so they would have been used to looking at these mirrors. Now these "mirrors" would only offer a weak reflection of the one looking into it. Paul ends by saying when we look in a mirror we see only a reflection. It's a great analogy for how a person "sees" God. We have a limited view of God because we are unable to see Him face to face. We can see evidence of God but still there is an incomplete view of God while we are here on this side of Heaven. One day, we will see Him fully when we are in eternity with Him.

Paul went on to explain that their spiritual gifts were good, but they were not the forever. When we are face to face with Jesus, our spiritual gifts are not needed anymore. Our spiritual gifts are temporary on this side of heaven, but love is forever. It's a change of perspective to think about love as eternal and our gifts as temporary isn't it? Paul wanted The Corinthians to change their perspective on how they viewed their focus for life as well. He wanted to give them an eternal perspective in the way they lived their life.

What about you? How could that change your focus if instead of thinking about how you use your gifts now, you began to think about how you can use your gifts to love others and expand His Kingdom and not yours?

Praying for you, Sis!

IN YOUR OWN WORDS

Write out what is happening in the verses you read. Put it in your own words.

APPLY

Reflect on what you just read, and walk through these questions with Jesus.

Is there a sin I need to confess to Him and ask Him to forgive me?

Is there a truth that I need to believe today?

Is there a promise that I need to hear and hold on to today?

Is there something I need to ask The Lord to help me live differently because of what I just read?

QUESTIONS

What questions came up when you read the verses today? Were there words or customs that you didn't understand? Write those out. Those are important to not just pass over. Those are some of the ways He calls your attention to something you need to pay attention to in your own life.

PRAY/JOURNAL

Take some time to pray/journal after your time of reading. Ask God to change your heart so that you look more and more like Him and less and less like the world. Ask Him to break your heart for what breaks His heart. Ask Him to help you focus on Him and less on what is all around you.
